

I recently purchased an XM radio and a subscription to its services. I made this choice because I wanted the freedom of hearing whatever I wanted whenever I wanted to hear it. I can Understand The FCC limiting programming on public air waves, but I am paying for XM. By paying for this service, It should be treated like a private network. XM should have complete control of its programming and services. I, as a supporter of satellite radio oppose hr 4026.